CLOVIS HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING BAND PLACES THIRD AT ZIA MARCHING FIESTA!

Congratulations go out to the Clovis High School (CHS) Marching Band on their third place finish at the Zia Marching Fiesta held on Saturday, October 22nd, at University Stadium in Albuquerque.

In preliminary competition, the CHS Marching Band won the award for "Best Musical Achievement" & "Best Visual Effect" and finished in second place.

In finals competition, the CHS Marching Band won the award for "Best Musical Achievement" and finished in third place.

This marks the 32nd year in a row that the CHS Marching Band has made finals at the Zia Fiesta. They are the only band in the history of the Fiesta to accomplish this feat.

The CHS Marching Band will continue the competitive part of their season this Friday and Saturday when they travel to St. George, UT for two marching competitions. On Friday, October 28th, the band will compete in the Utah Music Educators "Red Rocks" marching festival and on Saturday, October 29th, the band will compete in the Bands of America Western Regional. Good luck Marching Cats!

The Clovis High School Marching Band is directed by Bill Allred and assisted by Brandon Boerio, Karl Powell, Travis Pruitt, Ty Frederick, and Keith Sacane. Color Guard Director is T.J. Guevara. Great job directors!
